FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Free Event: Family Sunday Fun Day combines fun, function and fiction to build stronger, safer, and healthier communities

JACKSONVILLE, FL and Surrounding NE Florida Counties, Sept 13, 2024/PR Newswire/ -- A free local event, Family Sunday Fun Day, will be open to the public on September 15, 2024, from 3:30 to 7:00 pm at Mandarin Community Club, 12447 Mandarin Rd., Jacksonville, Florida. Offering fun, relationship-building, fall-themed activities, games, music, speakers and readings, this event helps families build stronger, safer and healthier communities.

Engaging in positive experiences helps build resilience, which nourishes improved relationships and community. Combining fun with useful information and resources opens neural pathways to real and lasting growth. Since so many people today experience some form of abuse, local organizations who help victims of abuse and neglect will be onsite with speakers, brochures and tools to help. An officer will present on Stranger Danger between 4 and 5 pm.

Local author Joan T. Warren will present her new novel, The Bent Tree Path, Book One: A Secret Trail of Tears. This historical fiction series, with its roots in the Trail of Tears, takes readers on a journey with two women, in two 20th century timelines, who fight one battle to save themselves and their children. The local author will provide readings, discussion and discounted sales.

Food trucks will be onsite, offering provisions at their usual cost. All other events are free. Come and spend the afternoon and early evening to ensure you and your family end the weekend with a positive, meaningful, and empowering memory.

This event is sponsored by A Book to Grow On, LLC. P.O. Box 8211 Fleming Island, FL 32006. Publishing that facilitates growth and healthy relationships. <http://www.abooktogrowon.com>
